Scrumptious Pineapple Meringue Pie Is Summertime Choice

This scrumptious pineapple pie belongs in your collection of classic favorites. The filling is made with canned crushed pineapple accented with a little grated lemon peel. Put the flaky top-of-the-stove filling in a graham cracker crumb crust shell for very special occasions in a chocolate cooky crumb crust. Then the top with fluffy meringue and brown until golden. Serve chilly cold for real hot weather refreshment.

Easy Pineapple Meringue Pie

2 (8 ounce) cans crushed pineapple, undrained	2 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 tablespoon cornstarch	2 eggs, separated
½ cup sugar	¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel	1 (8-inch) crumb shell

Combine undrained pineapple, cornstarch, ½ cup sugar and lemon peel; cook over very low heat until clear and thickened, stir in butter. Beat egg yolks slightly. Add a little of the hot mixture blending well. Combine with remaining hot mixture and cook over low heat 1 minute longer. Cool thoroughly. Pour into crumb shell. Beat egg whites until stiff and gradually beat in remaining ¼ cup sugar. Continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Swirl meringue over top of pie. Bake in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) for 15 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Serves 6.

Tasty Burgers With Hidden Flavor

Thick, juicy burgers with a surprise filling of cheese, onion and pickle will satisfy the heartiest appetites. Artfully seasoned with all-purpose barbecue sauce, these double-sized beef burgers are easy to prepare in a skillet or under the broiler.

Hero Hamburgers

2 pounds ground beef	¼ cup finely chopped process American cheese
2 eggs, slightly beaten	¼ cup relish or pickle cubes
½ teaspoon salt	¼ cup chopped or thinly sliced onion
1 cup Open Fit Barbecue Sauce	8 hamburger buns

Combine beef, eggs, salt, and ¼ cup barbecue sauce lightly. Divide into 16 portions; gently shape into oval patties. Place about 1 teaspoon each cheese, relish and barbecue sauce on half of the patties. Top with remaining patties; gently press together to seal in filling. Broil or fry about 5 minutes on one side. Then turn, baste with remaining barbecue sauce and continue cooking 4 more minutes, or until meat is of desired doneness. Serve in buns.

Family Picnic

The 23rd annual reunion of the Marshall - Caldwell families will be held, as usual, at the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Marshall, Spout Spring, Va., now the home of Forrest Marshall of Roanoke, Virginia.
All relatives or family connections are invited to be present and bring a picnic basket. A good time is in store for all.

MARSHALL FAMILY PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Marshall entertained Sunday with a family picnic on their lawn.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs Douglas Marshall, Connie and Donald, Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Lenn Eversole, Winter Haven, Fla.; Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Dean and daughter, Martha, of Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis, Martie, Ken, Cheerly and Stuart, Madison Heights; Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, Sterling, Travis and Tommy; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Koss, David and Alex; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Caldwell, Jr. and daughter, Trudy; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Caldwell and son, Ed Lee; Mr. Fred Caldwell Miss Wanda McCullough, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marshall, Stephen, David, Mark and Timothy; Mr. and Mrs. H. H Caldwell, Sr.; Mrs. Doris Martin and son, Lewis; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie D. Lewis; Mr. and Mrs Clark Lewis and son, Ricky. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stratton, Eddie and Nancy and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Harris, Phillis and Ronald, all of Appomatox.

Mr. & Mrs. Lloyd Vaughan and Son, Bill

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Robinson, editors and publishers of The Times Virginian, Appomatox, Va. for the past 31 years, announced today that W. Lloyd Vaughan will become editor and publisher of the paper effective September 1.
A former resident of Appomattox, Vaughan worked at the Appomattox Printing Shop before moving to Farmville, where he has been advertising manager of The Farmville Herald for the past 13 years.
Vaughan will publish his first issue Thursday, September 6. The paper will be printed Wednesday night for delivery Thursday. "I plan to make some changes in the format of the paper," Vaughan said, "but will follow the basic pattern of operation established by the Robinsons over the past 40 years."
The major change planned will be to print a standard size newspaper of eight columns, instead of six columns as it is now. "I also want to use more news pictures and will concentrate on local news that will be of interest to outreaders," he added.
The new 37-year-old owner is a native of Victoria. He and his wife, the former Sarah Conner of Farmville, and their two year old son, Bill, will move to Appomattox September 1, where they have established residence on Sunnydale Avenue. They are members of the Baptist Church, and have been active in the community life of Farmville.
Vaughan is a veteran of World War II, serving two years in the South Pacific on a destroyer with the U. S. Navy.
Herald publisher J. Barrye Wall said today, "It is with extreme regret that we see Lloyd return to Appomattox, as he has been an important part of our paper. However we realize that this is his ambition to own and publish his own weekly newspaper, and we know he will make a success of the paper."

1963 WHEAT QUOTA VOTE

Eligible wheat producers in Appomattox County should be sure to cast their ballots in the national wheat marketing quota referendum to be held August 30, C. D. Lewis, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, reminded growers today. Voting will be at the ASCS Office between the hours of 8:0 a. m. and 6:00 p. m.
Growers, eligible to vote in the referendum will be those who will produce more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in 1963 in any of the 39 commerical wheat states. Virginia is one of these States.
However, any producers who signed applications under the feed wheat provisions permitting them to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use as feed, food or seed on the farm for 1962 will not be eligible to vote in the referdum on quotas for the 1963 crop, Mr. Lewis pointed out.
At least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum August 30 must approve marketing quotas of they are to become effective.
In general, the 1962 wheat program which will be in effect under existing legislation provides for farm acreage allotments set on the basis of a minimum national wheat allotment of 55 million acres. The minimum price support would be at a level reservations, It was that they would be a sic Contest held at the auditorium on Oct. 20, Day Nov. 17. Everyone make arrangements to two functions. Mrs. Doss Retires After 40 Years Faithful Service

After over forty years as an employee of The Times-Virginian, Mrs. G. Lowis Doss retired August 5, 1962.
Mrs. Doss, one of the bent, most faithful employees a person could possibly hope for, began her career in the backshop of this newspaper in 1917 in the employ of the late A. H. Clement. At that time, The Times Virginian consisted of four pages and all the type was set by hand and Mrs. Doss recalls that she "fed the press" while "Uncle Spiller Trent" Negro handyman, turned the wheel by hand.
In 1931 when Father Darkleaf bought The Times Virginian, Mrs Doss stayed on ..., and remained with us up to the time of her retirement. To the best of our knowledge, Mrs. Doss has spent more time working in the "back shop" of a newspaper than any other Virginia lady.
Since 1931, we have grown to a ten or twelve page paper and both Mother Brightleaf and Father Darkleaf readily admit Mrs. Doss has contributed much to the growth and success of The Times Virginian.
And so — Lougenia — We salute you and wish for you many happy years in your retirement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Announce The Sale of The Times - Virginian

It has been announced that the sale of this newspaper has been arranged, with new ownership as of September 1st.
Mr. Lloyd Vaughan, of Farmville, an experienced newspaper man, has arranged to acquire the newspaper and job printing business from Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Robinson.
Mr. Robinson acquired the business in September, 1931, from the late A. H. Clement. Upon his marriage in 1932, to the former Miss Earle Patteson, she became co-publisher. The business was established in 1892, and it is the oldest continuous business in Appomattox County. It is understood that there will be no change in policy.
As they approach their final few weeks of operation, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson desire to express sincere gratitude and appreciation to the loyal correspondents, subscribers and advertisers who have sustained the very life of the business. They also urge all customers to support the new owner.
Mrs. Robinson has been asked to continue in the office and carry on by present work. Other present employees will also remain.
